YOUKOBO ART SPACE TOKYO

アマンダリッフォは、INSTITUT FRANÇAISの「hors les murs」プログラムの助成と国際文芸基金からの支援を受け、東京のYoukobo ART SPACEにてアーティスト・イン・レジデンスとして活動を行いました。彼女は現在、東京のアートシーンに活動に入り、日本そして海外のアーティストと交流すると共に、自身の研究テーマに関する様々な分野の専門家と出会いました。丸玉屋小勝治火店への訪問や、猫石研究の専門家、地元の住民との出会いやコラボレーションは、今後の彼女の制作に活かされることでしょう。

Youkobo ART SPACEでのアーティスト・イン・レジデンス事業は平成23年度文化庁芸術の海外発信拠点形成事業として採用されました。

Amanda Riffo participated in Youkobo ART SPACE residency program in Tokyo, in February-March 2012, as a granted artist from the INSTITUT FRANÇAIS, "hors les murs" research program. She has also received support from the Japan Foundation. During her stay, she actively joined the Tokyo art scene, and exchanged dialogue with local and foreign artists. In pursuit of her research subject, she also met experts from other fields, such as the Maruyama Ogatsu Fireworks Company, experts in metors, or local musicians. Those experiences and collaborations will certainly feed into her future artwork.

The Artist in Residence Program of youkobo ART SPACE was supported by The Agency of Cultural Affairs, Government of Japan, in Fiscal Year 2011.

Youkobo Art Space manages an Artist-in-Residence (AIR) program and a non-profit gallery for domestic and foreign artists, while holding a commitment to the support and development of AIR programs in general and, through art, promoting international exchange and community engagement, as well as fostering professional development. As a "studio" ("kobo") for you" (also meaning to "play" in Japanese), Youkobo aims to offer art and cultural experiences to a wide group of people through supporting artists' autonomous activities. Youkobo is also proud to be an official member of Res Arts (Worldwide Network of Artist Residencies).

Amanda Riffo is Granted from the "Hors les murs" program, Institut Français fellow 2012.
